Our Circuit Court.

The May term of the Wolfe Circuit Court closed last Saturday after an eventful two-weeks' session. Those who were present and heard Judge Adams instruct the Grand Jury on Monday, May 4th, will long remember the occasion, for unquestionably it was the most able instruction ever delivered in the Campton court-house. Many old men were heard to remark that they never in life heard anything to beat it, and some of them said that it reminded them of the instructions of Judge Elliott when he was in his prime. For more than two hours Judge Adams addressed the jury in the presence of a crowded court-room, and despite the fact that the audience was uncomfortably jammed together in order to furnish standing room for as many as possible, there was perfect attention, and it was evident that the audience was held spell-bound by the vivid way in which crime was depicted and its investigation recommended. If any "bootleggers" were present they were surely made to wince, for never before in the history of our Circuit Court was the liquor traffic so strongly condemned as it was by Judge Adams. He urged the Grand Jury to exhaust every clue to apprehend the parties who were unlawfully selling liquor, and when found to handle them in such a way that others would be deterred from doing likewise.

The machinery of the court, under the guidance of the master hand of Judge Adams, proceeded with great dispatch from the outset. The misdemeanor docket was disposed of in a business-like manner, but when the felony docket was reached progress was slightly hindered because Judge Adams was disqualified to act in a number of the murder cases owing to the fact that while he was Commonwealth's Attorney he had prosecuted them to hung juries. However, when the civil docket was taken up, business moved with such rapidity as to make up for all lost time.

No one would place themselves in such an absurd position as to question Judge Adams' ability as a criminal lawyer, but a few political pettifoggers in this judicial district have had the audacity to say that he is not well qualified in civil law. In response to such an insolent insinuation it is not necessary to say anything to the intelligent citizens of our county who know Judge Adams. You who were present at the last term of our court and heard his rulings and opinions in the many civil cases that were adjudicated have firm and fixed ideas about this matter, and if you love your country you will tell your friends and neighbors who were not so fortunate as to be at Circuit Court just what your opinions are as to the qualifications of Judge Adams to fill the office he now holds. The friends of Judge Adams are anxious for you to circulate your opinions, as they feel sure the Judge could be placed before the people in no better light.

This judicial district can boast of having many able and honorable lawyers, but it has no one who is better qualified to be its circuit judge than is the Hon. James P. Adams, regardless of age or political affiliation. Judge Adams is a graduate of one of the best law schools of our country, and his extensive practice since his graduation has made him one of the foremost lawyers of the land. He is just reaching the prime of life, and his abilities, both physical and mental, are now in their zenith. He is noted for his energy and endurance, which are two great requisites for a good judge. What other qualities could we wish in a judge other than those that we find in Judge Adams? It seems to us that he is perfect in so far as it is possible for a man to be perfect. He is not too young nor too old, too rich nor too poor, but we think just right to make the best circuit judge that Eastern Kentucky ever produced. He is a scholar and a gentleman in every sense of the term; no man dare to question his good name; and in the light of all this we are inclined to think that he is the man for the place.

Just as some of us are born to be "hewers of wood and drawers of water," so was James P. Adams born to be a judge. If a stranger should step into his courtroom and notice with what dignity and ability he demeans himself as judge, he would be inclined to think that Mr. Adams had graced the bench for many years; instead of a few months. It is as natural for Adams to be honest as it is for water to seek its level, and it seems that all citizens who have had their cases determined before him have gone from the court-house feeling that they have had a "square deal," regardless of whether they lost or won. Can we not at this time see the dawning of a new era in our judicial world? Can we not promise ourselves a security in person and property if James P. Adams continues to be our Circuit Judge? It seems to us that we can. Certainly the last term of Circuit Court was a good one, but it was not so good as will be the future terms held by Judge Adams, as he was laboring under a disadvantage at the last term owing to the pressure of the coming election. It is deplorable that such a great and good man as Judge Adams should have opposition in this race, for we need his continued services in the court-room without hitch or hinder. Let us consider this matter carefully and do honor to him to whom honor is due. The worst that can be said about Judge Adams is that he is not a man of wealth, but we are inclined to think that the good citizens of Wolfe county will not fault him for this when they step into their booths to vote on the 20th day of next month.

George Sandifer had a slight spell of home-sickness Saturday morning and at once left for Lexington to visit his wife and daughter. Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

$25 in Free Presents.

The Wolfe County Democratic Primary Election to select candidates for the various county offices will be held in the summer some time, and THE HERALD avails of the occasion to increase its subscription list and at the same time give its subscribers $25.00 in useful articles, such as watches and chains, razors, combination handy tool holder, &c.

This is in no sense a lottery but an educational problem, in which each new subscriber, and each old one who pays up and renews, will have the opportunity to exercise his brain in estimating the vote to be polled at the coming Democratic Primary Election.

The price of THE HERALD is $1.00 a year, in advance, and every subscriber is entitled to one estimate. Old subscribers who pay up arrearages and one year in advance are also entitled to one estimate. The one who sends in the closest estimate will receive a gold plated watch and chain; next nearest gold plated watch and aluminum fob, next a fine razor, &c. Use the estimate coupon attached. Write your name plainly and make figures of estimate very distinct. Then enclose $1.00 with the coupon and mail to this office. These coupons will be filed and the day after the election a disinterested committee will take charge of them and determine who is entitled to the presents.

Miss Josie Wheeler, of this place, left Monday for Oklahoma, where her sister, Mrs. Nettie McGuire, lives, and will remain with her for an indefinite period.

Kelly Rose, of Stillwater, is representing G. W. Waincott, of Winchester, and was interviewing our merchants Monday, from whom he secured some orders.

Mrs. Maud Kash, accompanied by two young lady friends from Hamilton College, Lexington, will be here Friday to take part in the commencement.

There will be a game of ball at this place Monday between the West Liberty nine and the Hazel Green team, which will be played on the diamond of the home team.

James M. Dyer, of Hendricks, was here Tuesday and renewed his subscription, when he told us he is traveling for a tobacco house at Danville, with a couple of lines on the side.

The second nine of the Hazel Green base ball league will cross bats with the first nine of the Compton team Saturday, the contest to be on the grounds of the home team.

R. J. McLan left Monday for Torrent and Winchester, after which he will go to Rose Hill, Va., to see his father, J. B. McLan, Sr., who still remains in a precarious condition.

George Dyer, the onliest candidate for Jailor of Wolfe County, made a flying trip to Montgomery county Tuesday to bring back his niece, Miss Flo Blankenship, and he will return today.

Miss Floretta South, former music teacher of the Academy, accompanied by a Miss Coleman, of Louisville, came in Saturday to attend commencement exercises. Miss Coleman is to be a teacher during next year.

Dr. A. C. Nickell tells us he will be compelled to break up house-keeping, owing to his wife's failing health, and offers his house, garden, barn and a fine well of water for rent. This is a nice little home that some one may rent at a bargain by applying to him at once, in time for garden.

Friends of the Academy should remember the baccalaureate services at the Christian Church Sunday, when Dr. Hubbell, of Kentucky University, will deliver an address morning and evening. Also, that the commencement exercises begin Wednesday morning at 10:30 at Pearre Hall.

Mesdames Curt Gevedon and Joe Gevedon, of Grassy Creek, were in town Tuesday on a shopping tour and stopped at our office out of a shower. Dr. Curt, who was their escort, subscribed for THE HERALD and the Louisville Times, after which the ladies bought some nice hats of Miss Falay Long, the milliner.

Mrs. Virgie Rose has the thanks of the editor and his better seven-eighths for a fine, fat chicken which took the place of the one intended for our birthday dinner that was captured by George Sandifer and her hubby. Sandifer had a birthday dinner Friday, but the editor had the choice chicken, and the laugh is on George.

Home Company Loses.

In the case of the Hazel Green Oil and Gas Company against S. R. Collier, the Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment of the Morgan Circuit Court. The appellant claimed he had a vested right in a gas well discovered on the farm of Holly Wilson leased to the company, but on the failure to further develop it the lease was turned over to the appellee. The court holds that appellant's lease had expired.

They "Deniges Uv Hit."

The report having gone forth that some of the Academy boys, en route to Ezel Saturday, were guilty of misbehavior, profane and obscene language in the presence of a lady, our Man About Town interviewed the four young students. Each one plead not guilty to the charge, saying that all they did was to give the college yell, and surely there is nothing offensive about that. We are glad to set these boys right, as such reports are against the school.

Admission Fees Charged.

The management of Hazel Green Academy announce that the fee for admission to the different entertainments, etc., will be as follows, viz: On Saturday and Wednesday nights 15c. admission will be charged all students who enrolled at the spring term and all other children under 12 years of age. Other people will be charged a fee of 25c. as admission—primary students free. Admission to the young ladies' contests on Tuesday night and to the boys' contests on Wednesday night an admission fee of 10c. will be charged each night. The proceeds derived from these admissions will be used to improve and beautify the school grounds and not to make money. All who hold a just pride in the institution will be glad to contribute in this way, and it is hoped a large crowd may attend the several entertainments.

A Double Birthday Dinner.

Quite a nice little birthday dinner was tendered Miss Pearl Troy and Miss Mae Williams Sunday by the parents of the latter. Miss Mae's birthday was Saturday and Miss Pearl's was on Monday. By having the dinner Sunday a happy medium was struck. Their respective ages we did not learn, and it would be impolite to inquire about so delicate a subject, but we believe Mae was "sweet sixteen." Only Dr. Williams' immediate family and a few intimate friends were at the festal board.

A Little Hero.

The little eight-year-old son of Ellis Johnson, Robert, had a very narrow escape from death Monday evening and proved to be a little hero. He rode a showman's horse to water, and after drinking the horse started and ran to the John M. Rose corner; thence down the street known as Broadway to Dr. Nickell's residence, when he turned and ran back to the Rose corner. Some 10 or 12 men, among them Charley Cecil, there stopped him and took the boy off. The distance traversed was about one mile and the little fellow held on like a Trojan trooper until he was rescued. He was not badly scared nor did the horse appear frightened but seemed to have been trained to the stunt. All who saw the runaway congratulated Bobby on his escape and crowned him a hero for his courage.

Why I am a Candidate.

To the Democratic Voters of Wolfe county and my Constituents:

1. Because I feel that by natural endowments and scholastic attainments I am thoroughly competent to do with credit any and all business which may come under the supervision of the office for which I am a candidate.

2. Because by right a clear track is due me on the part of J. W. Taulbee, whose announcement appeared in last week's issue. I was a candidate before the last primary. It not being wise for both Mr. Taulbee and myself to make the race for the same office, both living in the same precinct, so by mutual agreement I agreed to come off and give him a clear track, and he in turn agreed to give me a clear track and his influence before the coming primary. I have always been one of his most ardent supporters, always voting for him and assisting him in many other ways even to a sacrifice to myself. He now claims it is not my time and I am too young. I gave him a clear track the other time. Now, whose time is it and I am 81 years old? Beckham was Governor at 31. Pray, to be a County Superintendent does one have to be older than the Governor? I was not born with a silver spoon in my mouth nor rocked in the cradle of luxury. But it is no disgrace to be poor. In all my poverty I come before the people as true a Democrat as ever wore a straw hat or went barefooted in March and announce myself a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the office of Superintendent of Common Schools Wolfe county. I make no promises as to what I will do if elected. I wear no man's collar. But place in my hands the banner which marks your sacred trust and I do promise by the hills that seem eternal, by the streams that flow on forever, by the stars that wander through the ethereal blue, that it shall never trail in the dust, but will be borne aloft until its silken folds unfurl upon the topmost heights of victory. As a Democrat I step in the political arena; as a Democrat I shall soar on wings of victory or go down into the dreamless silence of the tongueless dust of defeat. But if some other Democrat wins this nomination over me I will not suik in the camp, but will rally around the standard bearer of Democracy, and when the enemies fierce glare shall paint hell on the skies I shall ever be found at my post of duty. Asking a favorable consideration, I am, yours truly,

A young mother with five children, the youngest of which is but six weeks old, left hungry and penniless, the father having gone to parts unknown with an avowal never to return, is the pathetic predicament surrounding Mrs. Mattie Witt, who has been residing with her husband at 325 East Fifth street.

According to the story told a reporter by the unassuming little woman, the husband, J. H. Witt, who has been employed for some time as a laborer at the Lexington Roller Mills, left home Thursday apparently for his work, but at night did not show up at home. Late in the evening she stated she received a long distance telephone message from him, stating that she might as well take the children and go back to Jackson, Ky., from the mountains near which was her home, because he never intended to return.

"Why he should act in that way I do not know," said the heart-broken woman between her sobs "He never treated us right; he drank and caused us to go hungry at times, but I didn't think he would ever do this. My God, what will I do with not a cent in the house, no coal, no food nor anything else."

Two of the children left were by the man's former wife, the remaining three being the present wife's children.

The local Associated Charity Organization has taken the case up and will no doubt keep them from suffering until the children can be placed in a charitable institution and the mother sent to the home of her father, near Jackson.

The case as to Witt has been turned over to the police department. The mother is about 25 years of age.—Lexington Herald, May 13.

COURIER-JOURNAL CUTS.

A Special Rate of $1.25 for the Campaign and Election.

For the first time in its history the Courier-Journal has made a special cut rate on its daily for the campaign. The regular price of the paper is $6 a year or $3 for six months. For the campaign a rate of $1.25 has been made, to apply to orders received during the months of June, July and August. After August 31 the regular rates will be in effect. Subscriptions received during these months at this rate will be entered on the Courier-Journal mailing list until December 1 next, when all will expire.

Send in your orders at once, through this paper. The earlier you get in, the more papers you receive.

Henry Watterson has announced that the Courier-Journal will support the Democratic ticket from end to end, and he believes the ticket will win in November. The Louisville Times, edited by Col. W. B. Haldeman, has made the same rate, $1.25, under the same conditions. The Times is the best Democratic afternoon paper printed anywhere.
